Dear Sir:

In response to the Examiner's Requirement for Information under 37 CFR 1.105, the Applicant respectfully submits that this requirement has already been partially complied with by the filing of certain HTML help files of the "Astrogator" module of the "Satellite Tool Kit (STK)" as they existed in October 1999, attached as exhibit B to the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 filed December 18, 2003. Although the requirement requested the "publication" of the "Astrogator" module of the "Satellite Tool Kit (STK)," the Astrogator module is not a publication, but rather is one portion of a suite of software programs, the Satellite Tool Kit, developed by Analytical Graphics, Inc. of Malvern, PA. The only published documentation available at the time of the Applicant's invention (which would have been available to one of ordinary skill in the art) was these online help files, a complete version of which is included herein on CD-ROM (Exhibit C). Applicant respectfully submits that these help files fully satisfy the Examiner's Requirement for Information under 37 CFR 1.105.

Respectfully submitted,
